INTRODUCTION

Home Centre, a leading global retailer, has been delighting customers since 1995 with its wide range of stylish and affordable furniture, home furnishings, and accessories. With over 100 stores worldwide, including a strong presence in India, Home Centre is renowned for its exceptional customer experience, continuous innovation, and outstanding value.

POSITIONING

Home Centre positions itself as an affordable yet stylish home décor and furniture brand that aims to bridge the gap between luxury aesthetics and budget-friendly pricing. It's known for offering a wide range of products that bring both quality and elegance into people's homes without the premium price tags often associated with luxury brands. This strategy allows Home Centre to appeal to a broad audience, from young professionals and families setting up their first homes to established homeowners looking to update or refresh their spaces.

TARGET GROUP

PRIMARY TG

- Audience: Young families, couples, and working professionals aged 25-40
- Characteristics: Value quality, stylish and modern designs, and functionality for home furnishings; likely to engage in online shopping and follow home décor trends.
- Location: Focus on urban areas, high-density cities where the need for organized, aesthetic living spaces is strong.
- Behavior: Active on social media, especially Facebook; frequently engages with décor and lifestyle content.

SECONDARY TG

- Audience: Older adults, homeowners, aged 40-60
- Characteristics: Prefer durability, and classic designs, and may prioritize comfort and functionality over trendiness.
- Location: Suburban and urban areas, potentially including tier 2 cities where space organization and quality furniture are also highly valued.
- Behavior: Moderate Facebook users, may engage more with ads offering promotions, and value-for-money propositions.

Awareness Stage

(Messaging for Brand Awareness)

- Objective: Introduce Home Centre as a one-stop shop for stylish, functional, and affordable home furnishings.
- Messaging Strategy: Highlight Home Centre's unique value proposition:
 - Primary TG: Showcase trendy, space-saving furniture and décor through video carousels, lifestyle images, and short-form videos.
 - Secondary TG: Emphasize quality and durability, with testimonials or case studies from long-term customers.
- Ad Formats: Video ads, carousel ads showcasing furniture collections, and high-quality lifestyle imagery.
- CTA Examples: “Discover Your Dream Home Décor,” “Make Every Corner Beautiful.”

Consideration Stage

(Driving Interest and Desire)

- Objective: Position Home Centre as the preferred choice for quality and affordable home furnishings.
- Messaging Strategy: Emphasize functionality, range, and affordability:
 - Primary TG: “Transform your space on a budget” with real-world customer examples, before/after shots, and “get the look” guides.
 - Secondary TG: Highlight premium, timeless designs and emphasize long-term value. Promote curated collections that align with this group’s preferences.
- Ad Formats: In-depth video walkthroughs, product demo ads, retargeting ads showing previously viewed items or items related to past interactions.
- CTA Examples: “See How It Fits in Your Home,” “Explore Our Collections.”

Conversion Stage

(Driving Action)

- Objective: Drive users to make purchases, sign up, or take advantage of a promotion.
- Messaging Strategy: Feature time-sensitive offers, incentives, and easy, hassle-free shopping experiences.
 - Primary TG: Limited-time discounts, “Buy More Save More” promotions on multi-item purchases.
 - Secondary TG: Highlight free delivery, easy returns, or special sales on high-value items.
- Ad Formats: Dynamic ads showcasing items added to the cart or browsed, retargeting ads, and lead ads with discount codes.
- CTA Examples: “Shop Now for Exclusive Deals,” “Limited Offer: Furnish Your Home at a Steal.”
